

Corporate Meetings With Character

(not to mention lots of characters... from T.rex, to Andy Warhol, to Picasso)

Every corporate meeting can and should be a memorable event. And Carnegie Museums has a host of meeting spaces that are functional and full of class and character.

Most of our spaces are available for private meetings during operating hours, and all spaces are open for private rentals after 5:30 pm. Please refer to the chart below for meeting spaces and their individual capacities. If you need a longer meeting time, please inquire about our reduced extended rates.

*We also offer a 20% discount for non-profit groups and applicable seasonal rates.
